South Beach in the City! Aspire Restaurant Launches Friday Night Jazz Series

Providence, RI – April 30, 2009 – Aspire Restaurant and the Hotel Providence, located at 311 Westminster Street in Providence RI launched a Friday night Jazz series on their new tented terrace on May 1st. The South Beach inspired rooftop terrace is located above the AAA Four-Diamond awarded Hotel Providence and can be accessed through the lobby of the stylish boutique hotel.

Area Jazz musicians will perform every Friday evening from 7-10pm. Opening night featured an ensemble, including the vocal styling of Tish Adams, put together by Joe Potenza, a popular Rhode Island Jazz musician and long-term Providence resident. “The Hotel Providence and Aspire Restaurant are excited about our new venture into the downtown music scene”, said General Manager Patrick Jordan. “We have created a unique venue that will showcase some of the best Jazz in the city”.

The chefs at Aspire have created a tempting menu of specially designed tapas for the Friday night series which include fresh oysters and skewers of beef satay. A full bar with specialty drink menu is available.

The sultry south beach-style lounge atmosphere, coupled with an exciting new menu and polished service, make Friday night at Aspire a perfect destination for Jazz aficionados.
